Attached is the final copy of the internet policy that I request that all internal employees sign. Further, all current and future temporary employees assigned to our clients in a capacity that has internet access (i.e. clerical, administrative or sales positions) also are required to sign this policy statement.

Thanks,
Tony

Tony,
Thank you; I will relay if questioned. Do you want these signed now, or are we waiting for a final draft after everyone has had a chance to provide input?

I don't have a problem with employees engaging the internet when they are "off the clock", which normally is before 8am or after 5pm or during lunch hour.

Tony,
I think this policy is very clear & will work well. I know I will be asked about lunch hours taken in the office; is personal internet usage allowed on company computers if the employee is off the clock?
Thank you,
